Healthy Snacks

A separate email has been sent out about healthy snacks for morning break. We would like to see healthier options for the morning snack which will better support children's concentration and help to keep hunger at bay. Thank you for your cooperation with this.

Year 6 Secondary School Applications

The deadline for Y6 Secondary School applications is fast-approaching - 31st October. It's really important that applications are completed by this deadline as it will save a lot of worry later in the year whilst waiting for the outcome of late applications.

Swimming in Term 2

We will be taking Peel Class Swimming next term - to the Olympiad on Wednesday afternoons. We kindly request a voluntary donation of £2 per session.

Black History Month - Flag Winners

Well done to everyone who designed a flag for Black History month. The winners received a book this week. They were:

Finley, Hope, Jasmine, Mania, Ophelia and Maverick.

Poppy Appeal

Members of the British Legion are preparing a poppy display to commemorate Remembrance Sunday - made up of decorated wooden discs prepared by children in the local schools. Your child has recently completed their wooden disc with wonderful, colourful designs - they may have mentioned it to you. The discs will be attached to a net and displayed on the Town Bridge in Chippenham.

Members of the public will be able to view the display from Thursday 22nd October until Remembrance Sunday. We hope you manage to view the whole display and find your child's disc.

St. Paul's Primary School
